

Our staff

We make sure there are enough staff in each service to give you the support you need.

Training Room

We give staff the training they need to support you.

We will work with you to choose staff who understand your needs and treat you with respect.

Most staff work for us for a long time. This means they can get to know you well.

